How it works

What can you win?

Rick Taplin
ITS Chair & Vice
President/President-Elect,
NELA

ITS

We Are:

- ❑ Members of NELA who are involved in, and interested in, computer hardware and software, and library media issues.
 - ❑ Academic, public, school, and special librarians who work with computer and/or media technologies in our respective institutions.
 - ❑ Librarians interested in keeping abreast of technology as it impacts on our professional lives.
 - ❑ Librarians interested in updating our skills in these areas.

ITS Goals

Our Goals Are:

- ❑ To provide a forum for our members to network and discuss library technology issues.
 - ❑ To provide workshops and training at various sites in New England.
 - ❑ To act as a clearinghouse for library technology issues.
 - ❑ To provide opportunities to preview emerging technologies

Conference Technology Services

- ❑ Conference Blog
 - ❑ NELA group on Flickr where you can post your conference snapshots. Go to <http://flickr.com/groups/nela>.
 - ❑ Check your email in rooms only.
 - ❑ Watch for handouts and presentation information on our web site after the Conference – www.nelib.org

Deborah Gadwah-Lambert
NELA Membership Committee Chair

Tips for Enjoying the Conference

- ❑ Introduce yourself – we'd love to meet you!
 - ❑ Wear comfortable shoes!
 - ❑ Drink plenty of water...
 - ❑ Plan each day ahead – sessions, exhibits time, breaks, speakers
 - ❑ If leaving a session early, let the speaker know ahead of time and sit near the door so you can quietly slip out.

Thank you for coming to NELA
Conference 2008!
