

The New England Library Association (NELA)

The New England Library Association is a regional organization initially chartered in 1963. It seeks to promote library service to the people of New England. Its objectives are to plan and support regional activities, to encourage the exchange of ideas, to cooperate with regional and national agencies having related interests, and to stimulate library-related research in the region.

NELA Membership

NELA represents a wide range of library-related interests, and encourages any individual, organization or institution interested in the objectives of the Association to become a member. Members receive preferred rates at NELA sponsored conference and workshops, and a free subscription to New England Libraries, a newsletter that provides both an overview of activities around the region and timely in-depth interviews. Personal members have voting privileges and are eligible for continuing education grants.

NELA offers you

- Networking opportunities with a cross section of librarians around New England.
- An annual conference with vibrant workshops and vendor exhibitions.
- NELLS, the New England Library Leadership Symposium, aimed at building leaders.
- Financial assistance for graduate MLS programs and continuing education opportunities of all kinds.
